Fruits of the Spirit Celebrations
May 7 – May 16, 2011

Saturday, May 7 – 7:00 P.M.

“Home for All: Made in Canada” – Concert and Art Gallery
Opening Reception

An all Canadian concert, with EnChor Chamber Choir and guest, singer/songwriter Paul Rumbolt and friends. The evening will also feature the premiere performance of the winning entry of EnChor Chamber Choir's Choral Music Competition. Following the concert, our “Home for All: Opening Doors” art gallery will officially open, featuring artists from the Calgary Drop-In and Rehabilitation Centre, and Scarboro United Church. Join us for appetizers and see some of Calgary's finest art work.

Sunday, May 8 – 10:30 A.M.

Gather for worship, featuring the music of our church, and jazz/gospel choirs. Following the service, coffee and goodies will be served in the “Home for All: Opening Doors” art exhibition. The gallery will be open for viewing between 8:00 – 2:30 daily.

Tuesday, May 10 – 7:00 P.M.

“Oasis”

A mid-week service, exploring spirituality in unlimited ways. This week's theme: “At the Risk of Being Christian.”

Friday, May 13 – 7:00 P.M.

Fruits of the Spirit Gala and Silent Auction

A gala event, featuring the talented musicians of Scarboro United Church. The church choir, jazz/gospel choir, youth jazz band, and soloists will provide entertainment while you browse the silent auction items. Delectable desserts included with admission ticket.

Saturday, May 14: 9:00 A.M. – 2:30 P.M.

Workshops – Come learn something new!

9:00 – 10:00 A.M.

Drumming – didn't get enough at the Oasis service last month? Here's another chance to "bang on your drum." Bring your own, or use one of ours.

10:15:-11:45 A.M.

Photography - discuss the secrets of taking great digital photographs with one of Calgary's top photographers. Following the workshop join the walk through the Scarboro neighbourhood, looking for photo opportunities to practice your new skills.

Author Talk - a conversation with author Carolyn Pogue on the "art of peace, inspiration and hope." Carolyn's passion is building a better world of peace and justice for all. Come hear some stories, serious conversation and humour, all intertwined in Carolyn's artistic flair

Paper Art – learn how to create your own 3-D cards or small book with one of Calgary's top artists, Dirk VanWick – www.makedovisibles.com

Handbells – calling any and all ding-dongs! Teamwork + concentration = great fun and beautiful music. No experience (or white gloves) required.

12:00 – 1:30 P.M.

Ukulele – ever tiptoed through the tulips? It's fun, and all will quickly learn how to accompany singers, or just play for your own enjoyment. We have ukes, if you need to borrow one, but be prepared to purchase your own when you're hooked!

Laughter Yoga – a powerful combination of the natural healing powers of laughter and physical exercise. Again, no experience (or sense of humour) required.

Paper Relief Making – our Lenten Journey artist, Bob Stowell introduced some paper art during his art series this year. This is a continuation of some of that work – take the next step, or begin your own journey! Create raised images of flowers, birds, landscapes, whatever you choose, using Bob's creative techniques with cut and folded paper.

Sunday, May 15 – 10:30

Celebration Service

A celebration of our week - long journey through the Fruits of the Spirit. Special guest musicians, The Foothills Brass” will be with us, and lunch will be served following the service.

Sunday, May 15 – 2:00

Foothills Brass 30 Anniversary Concert

Come help one of Calgary’s premiere ensembles celebrate their 30th year of entertaining audiences all over North America. The Scarboro United Church musicians will be with them for the celebration. Join us!
